

MAY BULLETIN

Here we are sliding into May already and approaching the end of the water line repairs that have handicapped us for so long. May 5th is the last rental that conflicts with our Canteen... FINALLY!!! I have rented the hall to the city for the following 3 weeks for election poll worker training, which concludes most days at 5pm so I can lay off the weekly parking attendant duties.

I have a couple dates you may want to put on the calender... May 5th around 3pm is the Kentucky Derby, stop by for a drink special and get in on the extracurricular activities. May 20th the Auxiliaries are having breakfast in the Canteen from 9:30am – 12:30pm come watch the Padres take on Pittsburgh at 10:30am and enjoy a biscuit and gravy kicker with an eye-opener... as our resident sports guru Mr. Guy Dunham always says, “An adult beverage and some groceries while watching the game is better then just some groceries.” Here is something for you veterans that are looking for a hobby, the 3rd Saturday of the month at 11:00am a group of veterans get together and assemble some different models, some are tanks, some are ships whatever you feel like. They break at noon for a lunch and conversation then retreat to our meeting room and go at it till 2pm or 3pm. Stop by and check them out to see if you are interested, they are a great bunch, you will enjoy yourself!! Brace yourself you music enthusiasts, Monday night are now Glo's open mic nite... people have been stopping in to enjoy some tunes and groceries along with their fellow members camaraderie, come join in if you have a few minutes to kill, you won't regret it. And don't forget Trish's Sunday Fun-day with more homemade groceries and her end of shift drawings that resume on May 6th, you could enjoy some baseball or games and maybe win a bottle of wine or a special prize that pops up from time to time.

I would like to welcome back Peter Andrew who has been deployed since October back to the Post, he is due to arrive around mid May, for those of you who don't remember him, since it has been a while, he is the husband of our very own “Parking Princess” Charlotte Andrew!!! We welcome you back from your most recent deployment, thank you for your service and membership!!!

La Mesa Flag Day Parade is coming up and we were looking for members who may have a convertible and would like to drive in the parade with fellow members. Please contact Jack Porath for date and times it is a fun event and quite interesting...

Now as I slide my soapbox back into the closet till next month, don't forget to take your vitamins, say your prayers and I'll see you around the corner.
