

JUNE BULLETIN

Welcome to the halfway point of the year already!!!! I cannot believe how quick this year is flying by. Please mark on your calendars July 15th is when we will start taking the entries for the Legion tournament, I can't believe the response we have gotten already and the tournament is still 4 ½ months out on October 12th... It is always a good time had by everyone and with Ms. Gini Arizias help we always have unbelievable raffle prizes...

On the 16th of the month we will be enjoying our Auxiliaries Fathers' Day Breakfast in our Canteen, it will run from 9:30am to 12:30pm, menu choices will be posted around the bar for your viewing enjoyment. As a courtesy to the people who prepare food on Friday nights please let them know a few days in advance if you would like to bring in a cake to celebrate a birthday or anniversary so they don't put on the added expense of making some other desserts and then wind up throwing them out after 2 days go by, it would be very appreciated!!! :)

As always this is our slow time of year, as is everyone, please travel careful and keep your eyes out for the other guy... count your change back, and don't talk to shady strangers... keep at least one arm through your purse strap and for the fella's the "Fanny Pack" is now the new in thing... anyway after your travels are over we'll see you later with good stories!!!

So much for the parental advice, let's get to the nuts and whip cream on this sundae and see what is happening in this town of excitement we call home... starting with our movie viewing critique. Holy scratch out my eyes and whistle me deaf if I didn't totally flush $8.20 down the water closet viewing "The Hustle" with the plus size blonde girl!!! This sad attempt revisiting the old Steve Martin movie "Dirty Rotten Scoundrels" does not deserve the ink I've already spent on it, but let me tell you how I really feel... I am starting a support group for those of us who accidentally seen it without this information, contact info is 800-RU-KIDDING this show rates the ever elusive, and rarely awarded, Burnt Kernel... Then there is "Long Shot" this movie will give you a chuckle!!! Seth Rogen is Funny but there is a part with Charlize Theron that is absolutely hysterical!!! She does an excellent job and it moves at a great pace so you won't get bored. This movie was thought to be sketchy at best but turned me to the point of 3 ½ stars you will laugh and at least twice you will get choked up, it is a very relatable movie on several levels, very entertaining... You asked & I viewed "The Avengers, Endgame", if you follow these movies, and I do, you will be very interested seeing how stories unwind or finish up, extremely enjoyable and still manages to keep you thinking into the future, even at the end... this will get two ratings, if you follow these types of movies 4 ½ stars & if not a solid 3 stars, very well done with excellent graphics!!! Once again I hear the cries in the crowd, "Corner Critic, where is a close, good, Italian restaurant.. my answer... Giardino's... I said, an excellent close, local establishment just at the end of Spring St. and to the right, 8131 Broadway, Lemon Grove. Not overly expensive, as a matter of fact very reasonable!!! You don't dabble into the low $30's till you hit filet mignon and lobster dishes, which are VERY well prepared!!! Extremely kind and accomadating staff, which when asked will do their best to satisfy your requests. It can get a little noisy in there but since most of us have hearing difficulties you can save on your batteries for the ear amplifiers. Do not be afraid of their pizza, it is outstanding!!! I highly recommend this one, once again, tell them Lenny sent you, the expression of confusion on their face with, "Who is this Lenny person?" will help with dinner conversation. Now as I slide my soapbox/movie seat/restaurant booth, back into the closet/upright position till next month, don't forget to take your vitamins, say your prayers and I'll see you around the corner.
