WHAT A GREAT MEAL AT THE ANNUAL VETERANS DAY DINNER!!!!!!

Lynn and her crew did another remarkable job!!! Which is no surprise, the big surprise was the band, they were very good once we turned the lights down and they started playing, I danced so much I had to wax the damn floor last week... I will be having them back for a party upstairs but just simple food and dancing!!!

Any way if you didn't go you missed out we had a great time and you could NOT buy a meal like that anywhere in town for twice the price. Great job ladies and Mr. Tony "Call me Chef" Sodl, how I got medium rare meat at the end of the line was just amazing... Keep an eye out for an upcoming bulletin board post in the canteen regarding an upcoming event.

So we are now into Christmas month, I have tried to tell everyone get your presents early, forget Santa, you don't want to go on your significant others naughty list, that makes for a cold home, not to mention bed... ☺ There is still time to right the ship, and while you are battling the mall crowds and pushing the weaker shoppers to the side like sickly sheep, stop into your veterans club for a little bit of the drop to help calm those frail holiday nerves. We will be collecting presents unwrapped for kids beginning the first week of the month, please remember those less fortunate.

And now a review of a restaurant I had the opportunity to visit recently... Over at Mission Beach, right on the beach at 3105 Ocean Front Walk at Belmont Park we have, The Cannonball... a spectacular view right on the ocean with incredible food and an excellent drink menu to try a new twist on an old favorite. Unbelievably affordable for the area and a sunset that cannot be beat. We have tried everything from the lobster dip and enfiago sushi roll, to the cannonball cheese burger which is absolutely amazing!!! The drinks do have alcohol in them, not like some of the bars that you may order a Jack & Coke and somebody passed by the bar on their way to deliver it to you and the bartender may have spilled a little liquor in it and they think that counts. Then charge you $12.00 without drawing a breath. These people actually pour in some booze, I try to keep you all informed on what's going on out there in the city without breaking the bank, but as always there is not a better deal in town that can beat your veterans club. I know some people can't see the forest through the trees but this place is the absolute nuts.

And now as I put my soap box back in the corner for another month and open a booth up for another patron, until next time, don't forget to take your vitamins, say your prayers and I'll see you around the corner.
