

FEBRUARY BULLETIN

First month of the year gone and it feels like I just blinked... I've decided to start talking Valium & Xanax to help the days slow down some, they are flying by!!! Anyway as always we are starting off the year with a little bit of the "Holiday Hangover" people are trying to figure out what the hell all the numbers are on their credit card statements and wondering why the kitchen liquor cabinet is looking so bare. Don't fret, there is much liquid therapy at your local Veterans Club!!! I know, I have been closely monitoring it with the assistance of Mr. Roger Rotter. With drink in hand and pen on paper we have been keeping a close accountability on the quality of our clubs' spirits!!! There are a few noteworthy events coming up this month you may wish to attend, we believe they will be quite enjoyable. First off we will be having a Salmon and dill sauce dinner in the Canteen on Valentine's day with music, Limited seating so arrive early. We will also be having a poker tournament in the hall on February 22nd, raffles, food and prizes guarantees an enjoyable evening! Also an end of month fashion show on the 29th, details in canteen on bulletin boards. Keep your eyes peeled in the Canteen for an upcoming event with a band that we had in the canteen for New Years that was outstanding!!! It will be posted soon, we are just working on the available date that matches up with the hall availability, will be a great time for all!!! Well it is time to fill you in... or I should say warn you about a movie that has hit the big screen and sank like me falling out of a boat, "Doolittle". I love me some Robert Downey Jr., he has had some great rolls in the past but he really crapped the bed in this role. I could not wait to get out of there, the absolute only thing that kept me was the sticky floor and soda/popcorn upgrade with a pretzel kicker. Anyway just to sum this disaster up he rounds up his animal friends to go on a quest, during this excursion you suffer an onslaught of attempted humor as the animals verbally cut each other down, at times Doolittle is talking to an animal but you see he is not looking where he is supposed to, normally this is just pitiful animation insert but that is the best thing that happens, if I was editing this movie it would be 10 minutes long, 6 just on credits. But since I am not an actor I don't wish to be too hard on the film, after all somebody invested hundreds of dollars to make this theatrical delight. Anyway on to the grading, I generously give this film 3 burnt kernals for the bad taste it left in my mouth. I'm still out there for you, watching film and eating groceries so you know, where... "to go, and not to go" that is the question. And now as I put my soap box back in the corner for another month and open a booth up for another patron, until next time, don't forget to take your vitamins, say your prayers and I'll see you around the corner.
